

Maria Dismondy

Virtual Visits

The new trend in author visits

Have a Michigan children's book author visit your school... through the internet!

Looking for a cost-effective way to meet award-winning children's author Maria Dismondy? Schedule a virtual visit!

Maria will present how she got the idea to write her books. She will also talk about bullying, making connections to her books. Children will walk away with skills to help them if they are faced with a bully situation.

It's not as fun as having her there in person, but it's better than no visit at all!

Schedule your visit today!
